Raytelligence receives order from Malmö Municipality

Raytelligence receives an order from Malmö municipality with an order value of approximately SEK 600,000.

“The order refers to a project to study the effect and experience of adding sensors and communication units in users' / patients' ordinary accommodation. Together with the City of Malmö and co-suppliers, we now have the opportunity to create added value for the City of Malmö's seniors and their relatives” says Klas Arvidson, CEO of Raytelligence.
