

Jonatan Forsberg appointed interim Chief Financial Officer of AAC Clyde Space

AAC Clyde Space has appointed Jonatan Forsberg as interim Chief Financial Officer, following the previously announced retirement of current CFO Mats Thideman. Jonatan Forsberg will work alongside Mats Thideman during the transition period, assuming full responsibilities on 28 November 2026.

Jonatan Forsberg has extensive experience in senior finance and executive roles in listed companies. Most recently, he has worked as an independent financial adviser, undertaking interim CFO assignments for listed companies. He has also previously served as CEO of the listed company Arctic Minerals AB (publ) and as CFO of Velcora Holding AB (publ), an international industrial engineering group.

"Jonatan brings extensive experience from finance leadership roles in listed companies. His background and expertise make him well suited to support AAC Clyde Space as we continue to execute on our plans," says Luis Gomes, CEO of AAC Clyde Space.

Jonatan Forsberg will serve as interim Chief Financial Officer until a permanent solution is in place.
