

Qbrick Delivers AI-generated Corporate Film to Dutch Company NORDIS

Qbrick AB (publ), a leading provider of AI-powered video solutions in the Nordics, has produced and delivered an AI-generated corporate film for NORDIS B.V., a major Dutch wholesaler and supplier of fresh produce to ships. The film highlights NORDIS' operations, values, and strong commitment to quality and sustainability.

Based in Rotterdam, NORDIS B.V. has more than 60 years of experience supplying fresh products to vessels across Western Europe and is recognized for its focus on quality and efficient distribution.

The project with NORDIS marks an important step in Qbrick's international expansion and demonstrates how the company's AI-driven video services can enhance and modernize corporate communication beyond the Nordic region.

Krister Karjalainen, CEO of Qbrick, comments:

"We are very pleased to have delivered this project for NORDIS and to continue strengthening Qbrick's presence in the European market. By combining creativity and AI technology, we enable companies to tell their stories in a more engaging and cost-efficient way. For our shareholders, this delivery clearly demonstrates how Qbrick's AI initiatives are translating into concrete business and strengthening our international position."
