

Satellite IoT company Wyld Networks strengthens the board with the appointment of Henrik Hedelius as a director

Following an Extraordinary General Meeting held on the 30th of September 2021, Henrik Hedelius has joined the board of directors of Wyld Networks AB to strengthen the company in its growth phase.

“We are very pleased that Henrik has agreed to join the board of Wyld Networks. Henrik brings both experience in corporate finance and M&A, as well as board experience from developing companies in a rapid growth phase”, said Mats Andersson, Chairman of Wyld Networks. “This appointment signifies our commitment to bring together a board of directors with the knowledge and experience to position Wyld Networks as front-runners of the burgeoning satellite IoT market”.

“I am delighted to join the board of Wyld Networks. I firmly believe in the company’s vision of creating a successful and profitable business by enabling global IoT connectivity”, said Henrik Hedelius. “Using satellites to collect data from IoT sensors regardless of their location solves real-world problems for businesses, as well as improving the world we live in.”

Henrik Hedelius, born 1966, studied Business Administration and Economics at Stockholm University. Henrik is chairman of the board of FUUD AB (publ) and SASHED AB and a board member of Vembla AB, Bergman & Beving Aktiebolag, Addtech AB and The Cloud Factory AB. He has previously been a senior advisor at UB Markets, CEO and partner at Hedelius & Berthelius, Head of private M&A at Kaupthing Bank, managing director at Storebrand Investments Sweden, and project manager at Swedbank Markets.
