Safestate Group AB (publ): SafeState Extends Partnership with Länsförsäkringar, Deepening Its Position in the Insurance Sector

Stockholm, 6th of July. Safestate Group AB (publ) is pleased to announce that it has extended its partnership with long-standing insurance partner Länsförsäkringar, which will continue offering SafeState's cybersecurity products to its customers across almost the full range of the platform, including dark web monitoring.

The extension underscores the confidence major partners place in SafeState's broad product offering and reaffirms the company's role as a trusted cyber security technology supplier to leading players in the insurance sector.

Daan Donders, CEO of SafeState: "Länsförsäkringar continuing to build on our full range of solutions is a strong signal that we keep delivering value for our largest partners."
