

Arcane announces research distribution partnership with Infront

Stockholm, 23 August 2022

Arcane Crypto AS, a wholly owned subsidiary of Arcane Crypto AB, has entered into an agreement with Infront to distribute Arcane's research on Infront's platform. Infront has over 90,000 professional users in Europe and offers a powerful combination of global market data, electronic trading, news, research, and analytics, along with portfolio management solutions suited for financial professionals.

By distributing our research through Infront we ensure that our brand is front and centre for the right audience. This is part of our strategy to increase the reach of our research to the relevant audience.

About Arcane Crypto

Arcane Crypto develops the infrastructure and products that enable worldwide adoption of bitcoin and digital assets. Arcane is building a platform for users to learn, trade and invest in digital assets, all from one account. Our market leading research content educates our users and builds trust. Arcane achieves scale by providing a platform with open APIs, allowing third parties to develop their own products using our technology and then distribute their product to our users.
