

SDS has entered into an agreement worth SEK 3.3 million

Seamless Distribution Systems AB ("SDS" or the "Company") hereby announces that the Company has entered into an important agreement with a leading telecom operator in Senegal, including delivery of the product RVM (Retail Value Management) worth SEK 3.3 million and SEK 10.0 million in ongoing support over four years.

The agreement has been signed with a leading telecom operator in Senegal and represents a significant milestone in SDS's continued focus on profitability and strengthens the company's position as a trusted provider in the African telecommunications sector.

The customer has chosen to invest in licenses and services in the RVM (Retail Value Management) product segment, which enables the operator to achieve a fully digitized end-to-end sales and distribution process. The solution will improve efficiency and empower the operator to stay ahead of the curve in a dynamic and competitive environment.

The income from this project will be reported gradually as the project is implemented. Support revenues are reported on an ongoing basis over a four-year period. The agreement represents a significant step towards the company's goal that recurring revenues will cover the company's operating costs.
