

Anita Bernie steps down from the Board of Directors

2024-01-30 AAC Clyde Space AB (publ)

AAC Clyde Space announces that Anita Bernie steps down from AAC Clyde Space's Board of Directors due to conflicting assignments which limit her Board Director role.

"I would like to thank Anita for great contributions to AAC Clyde Space, and her support and dedication. She has been a valuable source of expertise, and we wish her all the best in her future activities," says Chairman of the Board Rolf Hallencreutz.

Anita Bernie has been a Board Director since 2019.

The Board of Directors consists thereafter of five Board Members.

For more information:

Please visit: www.aac-clyde.space or contact:

Chairman of the Board Rolf Hallencreutz, investor@aac-clydespace.com

CFO Mats Thideman, mats.thideman@aac-clydespace.com, mobile +46 70 556 09 73

ABOUT AAC CLYDE SPACE

AAC Clyde Space specialises in small satellite technologies and services that enable businesses, governments together three divisions:

Space Data as a Service (SDaaS) – delivering data from space directly to customers

Space missions – turnkey solutions that empower customers to streamline their space missions

Space products and components – a full range of off-the-shelf and tailor-made subsystems, components and sensors

AAC Clyde Space aims to become a world leader in commercial small satellites and services from space, applying advances in its technology to tackle global challenges and improve our life on Earth.

The Group's main operations are located in Sweden, the United Kingdom, the Netherlands, South Africa and the USA, with partner networks in Japan and South Korea.

AAC Clyde Space's shares are traded on Nasdaq First North Premier Growth Market. Carnegie Investment Bank AB is the Certified Adviser. The share is also traded on the US OTCQX- market under the symbol ACCMF.