

New CFO in Move About Group (MOV)

Magnus Bergan takes over as new CFO in Move About Group (MOV).

The change will take place from 11 April, while Bent Fossum will be available to contribute to the transition. Bergan has been employed by Move About as accounting manager since April 2021 and worked closely with Fossum throughout the IPO process.

“Due to the changes in the company’s management, we have used the opportunity to reduce the costs of administration. The position of accounting manager will therefore not be replaced, but will be handled by the new CFO,” says Move About Group CEO, Olof Jonasson.

Bergan has a master's degree in economics with a specialization in finance from Bodø Business School. In addition, he has a master's degree from NHH in accounting and auditing. He has experience from 6 years as an auditor from Deloitte and has also been accounting manager in 24sevenoffice and NRC Norway.

Move About Group AB in brief

Move About offers app-based, environment friendly, and cost-efficient mobility solutions to individuals, businesses, municipalities, and organizations. The Company has developed and owns all immaterial rights to the cloud-based green tech platform which gives digital access to electric cars, electric bikes, taxi, subway, and parking, all through the same app – around the clock. Every kilometer the user travels with the electric cars via the platform reduces CO₂ emissions.

The Company’s extensive mobility solutions is built upon the Move About-app which gives the user access to the Company’s pools of electric cars, bikes, and scooters. Move About also assists companies, municipalities, and organizations to optimize their vehicle fleets by tailoring mobility solutions based on needs.

Move About was founded in Oslo, Norway, 2007 and has over 58,500 users today on their platform, and over 730 electric cars in the Company’s vehicle fleet with presence in Sweden, Norway, and Germany.
