

UNIBAP

Press release August 29, 2023

Unibap receives follow on hardware orders from US distributor for a flight mission.

Unibap's US distributor Moog Inc. is ordering products for 190 000 USD within Unibap's SpaceCloud® iX10 platform, for delivery during the third quarter of 2023.

These follow-on orders by Moog Inc., with a total value of 190 000 USD, meet the demand for iX10-family of products in the United States.

- We are happy to confirm the continued market interest in our latest solutions constituted by the iX10 platform. With the announced deliveries to our distributor, we continue our exciting and important journey to ramp up production of our high-performance on-board data processing unit for satellites, says Johan Åman, CEO.
