INFLUENCER MARKETING AGENCY FOURTH FLOOR CREATIVE GROW ADVENTURE BOX

Together their well-known Minecraft community influencers such as Nicovald, BiffleWiffle, GoldActual, Henwy, Karangutan, Sigils, and Ambrew Adventure Box and Forth Floor Creative are changing how games are made and what it is to be a Youtuber

With Adventure Box making, sharing and playing games is easier than ever. Youtubers can now make and share their own games using click-to-play technology.

- With a click-to-play possibility in a game platform we can play games online and also get our followers to do the same by just clicking a link, says Nicovald, a well-known Youtuber from the gaming community. And we can even get the users to join with us in our games, he continues.

For Adventure Box who has created the streamed sharing platform for games there is more to it, not just low-cost growth.

- We want influencers to earn more from making games than from talking about them. It is a logical step for Youtubers, who already are computer game brands, to become game producers. Together we change how computer games are made, said Christopher Kingdon CEO of Adventure Box.

Fourth Floor Creative is a fast-growing specialist influencer marketing agency.

- To open up in-game content revenue streams for content creators has huge potential. Fourth Floor is dedicated to generating value for creators, audiences and games companies and this campaign with Adventure Box is the perfect expression of that, said Rich Keith, CEO Fourth Floor.
