

Major General Lars-Olof Corneliusson elected to the Board of Directors of AAC Clyde Space

2025-05-23 AAC Clyde Space AB (publ)

At the Annual General Meeting of AAC Clyde Space AB on 22 May 2025, Major General Lars-Olof Corneliusson was elected as a new member of the Board of Directors. The election follows the nomination announced on 10 April.

With four decades of service in the Swedish Armed Forces, Lars-Olof Corneliusson has held several senior positions, including Director of Intelligence at the European Union Military Staff in Brussels, Military Advisor to the Swedish Ministry for Foreign Affairs, and Swedish delegate to the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission in the Korean Demilitarized Zone.

He also brings experience from international cooperation within NATO and the United Nations, with a particular focus on intelligence, defence policy and strategic leadership.

The election represents a strategic reinforcement in the areas of intelligence and security, at a time when space-based intelligence and information solutions are becoming increasingly important for civil protection and national defence.
