Through this collaboration, Acenta takes an even more prominent role in the development of the Nordic market and reinforces its presence in a growing European padel industry.

Expanded into new markets and strengthened presence in Europe through both sales and new partnership agreements.

Financial flexibility for continued growth

Strengthened working capital to meet increased demand and ensure capacity to deliver on a growing project portfolio.

Strategic agreements after the quarter

Following the end of the quarter, two important agreements were signed: an exclusive partnership agreement with the Irish company Padel Sports 100 Limited, with an order value of at least EUR 3.6 million – a breakthrough in a strategically important market – and an exclusive sales agency agreement with the premium brand Cuera. Both agreements are key milestones in the company's international expansion journey.
