Press release September 11, 2023

Unibap AB receives follow-on order from a Japanese customer for SpaceCloud® solutions.

Unibap AB (publ) has received a follow-on order for SpaceCloud® iX10 solutions from a Japanese end-user through the company's re-seller NASAM K.K. The value of the order is KEUR 158, and it is scheduled for delivery during 2023.

- The agreement is the result of the continuous work Unibap has done with Japanese end-users and our partner NASAM K.K. It confirms that the SpaceCloud® hardware, software and services offering continues to be a preferred solution for Japanese end-users within Edge Computing, Autonomous Operation and Cloud Computing in Space, says Johan Åman, CEO Unibap.
