Annhem Fastigheter changes CEO

The Board of Annhem Fastigheter (publ) has today decided to initiate a process to appoint a new CEO for the company. The company's current CEO, Jörgen Lundgren, will remain in his position as CEO during a transitional period of no more than six months.

The Board of Annhem Fastigheter has today decided to initiate a process to appoint a new CEO. The current CEO, Jörgen Lundgren, has been resigned due to that the Board and the CEO have different views on the company's strategy going forward. Jörgen Lundgren will remain in his position as CEO during a transitional period of no more than six months. The process of recruiting a permanent successor will commence immediately.

"I want to thank Jörgen for his contributions to the company. He has successfully led Annhem Fastigheter through Peabs distribution of the shares in the company and has established the company in the listed environment at Nasdaq Stockholm. The Board has now decided to increase the exposure to residential properties, while the strategy for Annhem Fastigheter to expand in office, community service and residential properties remains.", says Göran Grosskopf, Chairman of the Board of Annhem Fastigheter.
